New Delhi, the 19th May 1970

THE ARMED FORCES HEADQUARTERS CIVIL SERVICE SUPERINTENDENTS' GRADE (APPOINTMENT BY COMPETITIVE EXAMINATION) REGULATIONS, 1970

S.R.O. 252.—In pursuance of sub-rule (1) of rule 11 of the Armed Forces Headquarters Civil Service Rules, 1968, the Central Government, in consultation with the Union Public Service Commission, hereby makes the following regulations, namely:—

1. Short title and commencement.—(1) These regulations may be called the Armed Forces Headquarters Civil Service, Superintendents' Grade (Appointment by Competitive Examination) Regulations, 1970.

(2) They shall come into force on the date of their publication in the Official Gazette.

2. Definitions.—(1) In these regulations, unless the context otherwise requires,—

- (a) "available vacancies" means the vacancies in the grade of Superintendent of the Service which are decided to be filled on the results of the examination;
- (b) "examination" means the combined competitive examination held by the Commission for recruitment to the Central Services, Class I and Class II; and
- (c) "Scheduled Castes" and "Scheduled Tribes" shall have the same meanings as are assigned to them by clauses (24) and (25) respectively of article 366 of the Constitution of India.

(2) All other words and expressions used in these regulations and not defined herein shall have the meanings respectively assigned to them in the Armed Forces Headquarters Civil Service Rules, 1968.

3. Holding of the examination.—(1) The examination shall be conducted by the Commission in the manner notified by the Government of India in the Ministry of Home Affairs from time to time.

(2) The dates on which and the places at which the examination shall be held shall be fixed by the Commission.

4. Conditions of eligibility.—In order to be eligible to compete at the examination, a candidate must satisfy the following conditions, namely:—

(i) Nationality—

- (a) He must be a citizen of India, or
- (b) He must belong to such categories of persons as may from time to time be notified in this behalf by the Government of India in the Ministry of Home Affairs.

(ii) Age—He must have attained the age of 21 years, and must not have attained the age of 24 years on the first day of August of the year in which the examination is held:

Provided that the upper age limit may be relaxed in respect of candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes and such other categories of persons as may be notified in this behalf by the Government from time to time to the extent and subject to the conditions notified in respect of each category.

(iii) Educational Qualifications.—He must hold a degree of any University incorporated by an Act of the Central or State Legislature in India or other educational institutes established by an Act of Parliament or declared to be deemed as Universities under section 3 of the University Grants Commission Act, 1956, or a foreign University approved by the Government from time to time, or possess a qualification which has been recognised by the Government for the purposes of admission to the examination:

Provided that—

- (a) in exceptional cases, the Commission may treat a candidate as a qualified candidate who, though not possessing the qualifications prescribed in this clause, has passed examinations conducted by other institutions of a standard which, in the opinion of the Commission, justifies the admission of the candidate to the examination; and

- (b) a candidate who is otherwise qualified but has taken a degree from a foreign University, when is not approved by the Government, may also be admitted to the examination at the discretion of the Commission.

NOTE.—A candidate who has appeared at an examination the raising of which would render him eligible to appear at this examination, but has not been informed of the result, may apply for admission to the examination. A candidate, who intends to appear at such a qualifying examination may also apply provided the qualifying examination is completed before the commencement of this examination. Such candidates will be admitted to the examination, if otherwise eligible, but the admission would be deemed to be provisional and subject to cancellation if they do not produce proof of having passed the examination, as soon as possible and in any case not later than two months after the commencement of this examination.

(iv) Attempts at the examination.—Unless covered by any of the exceptions that may, from time to time, be notified by Government in this behalf, he should not already have competed more than once at the examinations he'd after the 1st January, 1961.

NOTE 1.—A candidate shall be deemed to have completed at the examination once for all the Services or posts ordinarily covered by the examination if he competes for any one or more of the Services or posts.

NOTE 2.—A candidate shall be deemed to have completed at the examination if he actually appears in any one or more subjects.

(v) Fees.—Subject to such exemptions or concessions or both, as may be notified in this behalf by the Government of India in the Ministry of Home Affairs from time to time, he shall pay the fees specified by the Commission.

5. Canvassing of candidature.—Any attempt on the part of a candidate to obtain support for his candidature by any means may be held by the Commission to disqualify him for admission to the examination.

6. Decision as to eligibility.—The decision of the Commission as to the eligibility or otherwise of a candidate for admission to the examination shall be final and no candidate to whom a certificate of admission has not been issued by the Commission shall be admitted to the examination.

7. Results.—(1) The names of the candidates who are considered by the Commission to be suitable for appointment on the results of the examination shall be arranged in the order of merit and subject to the provisions of sub-regulation (5) of regulation 8, they shall be recommended for appointment in that order upto the number of appointments required to be made.

(2) The form and manner of communication of the results of the examination to individual candidates shall be decided by the Commission in their discretion and the Commission shall not enter into any correspondence with the individual candidates regarding the results.

8. Appointments.—(1) Success at the examination shall confer no right to appointment to the Grade of Superintendent of the Service unless the Government is satisfied, after such enquiry as may be considered necessary, that the candidate is suitable in all respects for appointment to public service.

(2) No candidate shall be appointed to the Grade of Superintendent of the Service unless he is, after such medical examination as the Government may prescribe, found to be free from any mental or physical defect, which is likely to interfere with the discharge of the duties of the Service.

(3) No person who has more than one wife living or who, having a spouse living, marries in any case in which such marriage is void by reason of its taking place during the life time of such spouse, and no woman whose marriage is void by reason of the husband having a wife living at the time of such marriage, or who has married a person who has a wife living at the time of such marriage, shall be eligible for any appointment on the results of the examination:

Provided that the Government may, if satisfied that there are special grounds for so doing, exempt any person from the operation of this sub-regulation.

(4) Save as provided in sub-regulation (5) of this regulation, appointments to the Grade of Superintendent of the Service on the results of any examination shall be made to the extent of the available vacancies in the order of merit of the candidates recommended by the Commission for appointment, subject to reservations for members of the Scheduled Castes or Scheduled Tribes, in accordance with the orders issued by the Government in this behalf from time to time.

(5) Candidates belonging to any of the Scheduled Castes or Scheduled Tribes who are considered by the Commission to be suitable for appointment on the results of the examination with due regard to the maintenance of the efficiency of administration shall be eligible to be appointed to the vacancies reserved for them irrespective of their ranks in the order of merit at the examination:

Provided that if a sufficient number of candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes is not available to fill all the vacancies reserved for them in accordance with the orders of Government issued in this behalf from time to time, the unfilled vacancies shall be filled in the manner prescribed by Government.

9. Penalty for impersonation or other misconduct.—A candidate who is or has been declared by the Commission guilty of impersonation or of submitting fabricated documents or documents which have been tampered with or of making statements which are incorrect or false or of suppressing material information or otherwise resorting to any other irregular or improper means for obtaining admission to the examination, or of using or attempting to use unfair means in the examination hall or of misbehaviour in the examination hall, may in addition to rendering himself liable to criminal prosecution,—

(a) be debarred permanently or for a specified period—

(i) by the Commission, from admission to any examination or from appearance at any interview held by the Commission for selection of candidates; and

(ii) by the Government from employment under them;

(b) be liable to disciplinary action under the appropriate rules, if he is already in service under the Government.

(ii) Age.—He must have attained the age of 18 years and must not have attained the age of 24 years on the first day of January of the year in which the examination is held:

Provided that the upper age limit may be relaxed in respect of candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes and such other categories of persons as may be notified in this behalf by the Government from time to time to the extent and subject to the conditions notified in respect of each category.

(iii) Educational Qualifications.—He must have passed the Matriculation examination of a University incorporated by an act of the Central or State Legislature in India, or an examination held by a State Education Board at the end of Secondary School Course for the award of a School Leaving, Secondary School Course or High School Certificate, or otherwise possess any qualification which has been recognised by the Government for the purposes of admission to the examination:

Provided that in exceptional cases a candidate who, though not possessing any of the qualifications specified in this clause, may be treated by the Commission as educationally qualified if he possesses qualifications the standard of which in the opinion of the Commission justifies his admission to the examination.

NOTE.—A candidate who has appeared at an examination the passing of which would render him eligible to appear at this examination, but has not been informed of the result, may apply for admission to the examination. A candidate, who intends to appear at such qualifying examination may also apply provided the qualifying examination is completed before the commencement of this examination. Such candidates will be admitted to the examination, if otherwise eligible but the admission would be deemed to be provisional and subject to cancellation if they do not produce proof of having passed the examination, as soon as possible and in any case not later than two months after the commencement of this examination.

(iv) Attempts at the examination.—Unless covered by any of the exceptions that may, from time to time, be notified by the Government of India in the Ministry of Home Affairs, in this behalf, he should not already have competed more than once at the examinations held after the 1st January, 1962.

NOTE 1.—A candidate shall be deemed to have competed at the examination once for all the Services or posts ordinarily covered by the examination if he competes for any one or more of the Services or posts.

NOTE 2.—A candidate shall be deemed to have competed at the examination if he actually appears in any one or more subjects.

(v) Fees.—Subject to such exemption or concessions or both, as may be notified from time to time in this behalf, by the Government of India in the Ministry of Home Affairs, he shall pay the fees specified by the Commission.

5. Canvassing of candidature.—Any attempts on the part of a candidate to obtain support for his candidature by any means may be held by the Commission to disqualify him for admission to the examination.

6. Decision as to eligibility.—The decision of the Commission as to the eligibility or otherwise of a candidate for admission to the examination shall be final and no candidate to whom a certificate of admission has not been issued by the Commission shall be admitted to the examination.

7. Results.—(1) The names of the candidates who are considered by the Commission to be suitable for appointment on the results of the examination shall be arranged in the order of merit and subject to the provisions of sub-regulation (5) of regulation 8, they shall be recommended for appointment in that order upto the number of appointments decided to be made.

(2) The form and manner of communication of the results of the examination to individual candidates shall be decided by the Commission in their discretion and the Commission shall not enter into any correspondence with the individual candidates regarding the results.

8. Appointments.—(1) Success at the examination shall confer no right to appointment to Grade II of the Service unless the Government is satisfied, after such enquiry as may be considered necessary, that the candidate is suitable in all respects for appointment to the public service.

(2) No candidate shall be appointed to Grade II of the Service unless he is, after such medical examination as the Government may prescribe, found to be free from any mental or physical defect which is likely to interfere with the discharge of the duties of the Service.

(3) No person who has more than one wife living or who, having a spouse living, marries in any case in which such marriage is void by reason of its taking place during the life time of such spouse, and no woman whose marriage is void by reason of the husband having a wife living at the time of such marriage or who has married a person who has a wife living at the time of such marriage, shall be eligible for any appointment on the results of the examination:

Provided that the Government may, if satisfied that there are special grounds for so doing, exempt any person from the operation of this sub-regulation.

(4) Save as provided in sub-regulation (5) of this regulation, appointments to Grade II of the Service on the results of any examination shall be made to the extent of the available vacancies, in the order of merit of the candidates recommended by the Commission for appointment, subject to reservations for members of the Scheduled Castes or Scheduled Tribes, in accordance with the orders issued by the Government in this behalf from time to time.

(5) Candidates belonging to any of the Scheduled Castes or Scheduled Tribes who are considered by the Commission to be suitable for appointment on the results of the examination with due regard to the maintenance of the efficiency of administration shall be eligible to be appointed to the vacancies reserved for them irrespective of their ranks in the order of merit at the examination:

Provided that if a sufficient number of candidates belonging to the Scheduled Castes and the Scheduled Tribes is not available to fill all the vacancies reserved for them in accordance with the orders of Government issued in this behalf from time to time, the unfilled vacancies shall be filled in the manner prescribed by Government.

9. Penalty for impersonation or other misconduct.—A candidate who is or has been declared by the Commission guilty of impersonation or of submitting fabricated documents or documents which have been tampered with or of making statements which are incorrect or false or of suppressing material information or otherwise resorting to any other irregular or improper means for obtaining admission to the examination, or of using or attempting to use unfair means in the examination hall or of misbehaviour in the examination hall, may, in addition to rendering himself liable to criminal prosecution,—

(a) be debarred permanently or for a specified period.—

(i) by the Commission, from admission to any examination or from appearance at any interview held by the Commission for selection of candidates; and

(ii) by the Government from employment under them;

(b) be liable to disciplinary action under the appropriate rules, if he is already in service under the Government.
